PRESS RELEASE October 15, 2012

Sgt. Larry Harpster reported that on Saturday, October 13, 2012 at 1:30 pm, the Lake County Sheriff's Office was dispatched to 3232 Maine Avenue in Perry Township, in reference to a daytime burglary which had occurred. The burglary occurred while the resident was not home during the previous couple hours.

The investigation showed that forced entry was made into the residence through a rear door. The suspect(s) entered the residence through the garage, and then into the residence. Among items stolen were a wedding ring and a flat panel television set. Evidence was collected at the scene and the case is still under investigation.
